ADOPTION & FOSTER CARE CONFERENCE

Do you want to learn more about the foster care community and how you can serve?

Are you a parent or caregiver who seeks high-quality resources and support? Need some connection with people who get it?

Are you a ministry leader seeking out ways to increase your church's role caring for vulnerable children and families?

Join Us. We are excited to offer the Central Texas community A Future + A Hope Conference 2022 at First Baptist Georgetown. There will be inspiring and excellent presentations to encourage people to engage in foster care and adoption, and high-quality resources to equip caregivers of children. Along with over 16 breakout sessions to choose from, AFAH will host outstanding general session speakers.

AFAH 2022 Is a two-day event. Choose Friday evening for $30, choose Saturday for $30 or both days for $50.

Childcare is available but limited. Register for childcare before February 9!

Friday Evening 6p-9p

Dr. Clarence Hill Jr. is the founder and lead visionary for the Stronger Together Movement and one of the most sought after speakers in the country. Specializing in social issues and areas of conflict, Dr. Hill has a passion for families building bridges to racial harmony. He speaks across the country on the topic of city transformation, family fragmentation, and compassion.

Saturday 9a-3:30p

Rosaria Butterfield (PhD, Ohio State University) is an author, speaker, pastor's wife, homeschool mom, foster parent, and former professor of English and women's studies at Syracuse University. She is the author of The Gospel Comes with a House Key. Be challenged by Dr. Butterfield to consider fostering as an act of biblical hospitality at Saturday's general session.

Along with many breakout sessions, we will have a special viewing the short film, Take a Chance on Me, produced and directed by The Archibald Project. Watch the love grow between a teen and his adoptive parents. You won't want to miss it!

All of this, amazing food, connection, giveaways, and encouragement. Click here to learn more and register!
